KENNETH LEVITT

In the last two months in Japan, many stars such as Greg Valentine, Mil Mascaras, Don Muraco, Pat Patterson and W.W.F. Champ; Bob Backlund, appeared.

On November 30, 1979, in Tokushima, Japan, Antonio Inoki, defeated Bob Backlund for the W.W.F. Belt. There has been a lot of controversy surrounding that decision because Tiger Jeet Singh interfered. Seven days later on December 6, 1979, in Tokyo, Backlund regained his belt by defeating Inoki. This match also ended in a controversy decision because once again, Tiger Jeet Singh interfered. In a Tag Tournament the P.W.F. held, The Funk Brothers came out on top.

In the A.W.A. Manager Lord Alfred Hayes has been fired by Super Destroyer Mark 2. Hayes has teamed with former enemy, The Crusher. Bobby Heenan has been managing Nick Bockwinkel, the A.W.A. champion. The two top teams in the area are Verne Gagne and Mad Dog Vachon and the team of Jesse Ventura and Adrian Adonis. Dino Bravo has been seen in the rings of the A.W.A. wearing the Canadian Belt.

In the Mid-South Louisiana circuit, Mike George has been given back the North American title on a technicality. Bill Watts previously held the belt. The Georgia Tag Team champions are Ivan Koloff and Alexis Smirnoff. The Masked Superstar is the Georgia State Champion.

On Saturday, December 29, 1979, in San Francisco, California, George Wells defeated Bob Sweetan for the United States heavyweight title. In a recent interview on the W.W.F. TV tapes Larry Zbyszko has issued a challenge to Bruno Sammartino, the man who started Larry on his way in the ranks of pro wrestling.
